ivory, buff, dusty pink, black, almond green, and curry yellow. Khorasan rugs: hand-knotted rugs originating from the Khorasan province in northeastern Iran. These tightly knotted rugs have a cotton warp and feature typical Persian designs, such as medallions, palmettes, arabesques, and mir-e butha or Herati motifs, and may include verses from the Quran, which is becoming increasingly rare. The city of Kashmar (?????) has a very long history; its former name was Torshiz. Its carpets are of very high quality; they have been woven for centuries using thick, soft wool and are certainly the most comfortable of all Persian carpets (see my other Kashmar carpets in my gallery). ## Very soft and fine kork wool is the wool sheared from the neck and belly of lambs during their very first shearing only. Kashmar rugs are characterized by their large sizes and unique designs, such as scenes depicting trees, flowers, vases, or Persian architectural motifs. They often depict important historical events in Persian history. In Kashmar, masterpieces are woven that showcase a harmonious blend of colors, intricate designs, and fine details, reflecting the Persians' love for art and beauty. Kashmar rugs are a favorite among interior designers; they are durable and become even more beautiful as they age. This rug has been professionally cleaned using eco-friendly methods. FREE SHIPPING TO FRANCE 0EUR /
