Description

Antique Napoleon III sculpture in patinated bronze depicting an allegory of beauty, signed "A.NELSON," dating from the second half of the 19th century. The young woman's face is characterized by soft, idealized features typical of French artistic standards from the second half of the 19th century. Her eyes are finely engraved and turned toward her left, giving her a serene expression that is both proud and dreamy. Her hair is wavy and partially gathered, with locks sculpted in a dynamic, three-dimensional manner that frame her face and cascade down her neck. The young woman wears an asymmetrical, curved wide-brimmed hat embellished with a large ribbon tied on the right side. Overall Condition: Excellent. Provenance: 19th-century France. Dimensions: 40x25 H80
