Description

A pair of large Louis XVI candlesticks from the 18th century, converted into lamps and topped with light gray fabric lampshades. They feature rich chiseled decoration of fluting, foliage, rows of pearls, and interlacing patterns. In good condition; the electrical wiring has been redone. Wear and missing silver plating give them a warm, vintage patina (visible in the photos). Shipping cost to mainland France is EUR20; for other destinations, please contact us for an accurate shipping quote.
