White Opaline Set, Charles X Style, With Gold-enameled Decoration

2 350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Opale

Description

A three-piece set in white opaline (with a pale blue tint at the base), in the Charles X style, featuring rich polychrome enamel decoration accented with burnished gold. The motif, repeated on all three pieces, combines a band of gilded diamond-patterned latticework with a frieze of floral bouquets (daisies, grape clusters, and foliage) rendered in shades of gray-blue and gold, framed by gilded fillets and rings. The set includes: A baluster-shaped bottle with a long, fluted neck, adorned with superimposed gilded bands, closed with a matching ball stopper; A domed lidded jar (sugar bowl or box) with a knob-handled lid, featuring the same decoration; A goblet or cup on a pedestal, with a stem and flared circular base, the flared body featuring the same floral decoration and gold
