Description

Pair of model "118" armchairs designed by Grete Jalk for France & Son in the 1960s. The frame is made of teak, known for its charming natural grain, and the padding is spring and feather, while the upholstery is fabric. The armchairs are in fair condition, showing signs of age that add character and authenticity. A classic example of period Scandinavian design, these armchairs are ideal for those who appreciate vintage aesthetics and uncompromising comfort. Product Condition: The item is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are unclear from the photos, the description will apply.
