Description

Gilbert SWIMBERGHE (1927-2015), oil on panel, signed on the reverse and stamped "Swimberghe." Dimensions: 52 x 32 cm (unframed). Outer frame dimensions: 56 x 36 cm Born in Sint-Andries, Bruges, Gilbert Swimberghe was a painter, draftsman, sculptor, screen printer, and mosaic artist. He studied at the academies in Bruges and Saint-Josse-ten-Noode. He began in an Expressionist style and later evolved toward abstraction. He moved from a structured and monumental expressionism to an abstraction in which forms and colors create an illusory space (the "pink," "yellow," and "yellow-green" periods). Beginning in 1962, he created stone mosaics and white reliefs. After 1976, he produced large drawings on paper and, beginning in 1978, white canvas surfaces that
