Description

A magnificent chandelier, beaded, featuring almond-cut and square-cut crystals on the bands, pagoda-shaped elements beneath the crown, light arms and branches on the crown covered with hundreds of crystal beads, ending in pretty flowers--refined, delicate, and elegant. This is a chandelier with a romantic atmosphere and imposing yet light elegance. A piece that enhances a space without overwhelming it--a chandelier whose details reveal its beauty to those who know how to appreciate it. The eight light arms are designed for candles, and modern electrical wiring has been incorporated into the structure of the piece.
