

Small Walnut Desk, Louis-philippe Style - 19th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Solid wood

Width : 70

Height : 73

Depth : 43

Description

This small walnut desk is an elegant piece with timeless charm. Its tabletop features magnificent organic grain patterns, a hallmark of this noble and durable wood, which lend the piece a warm and authentic presence. Rising on four finely turned legs, the piece combines simplicity and refinement in a classic 19th-century style. The central drawer, featuring a gold-plated knob, offers practical storage space while maintaining the purity of the lines. Compact, harmonious, and perfectly proportioned, this small desk fits just as well in a contemporary interior as it does in a more traditional setting. It embodies the simple elegance of traditional craftsmanship, where every detail was designed to last. Period: 19th centuryExcellent condition following restoration in our

Dealer

Antiquités Lecomte

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 02.40.57.63.83

Mobile : 06.38.26.81.12

33 La Bosse des Landes

HERIC 44810

workshop.Finish: WaxedShipping available upon request in France and internationallyDimensions:Height: 73 cmWidth:
70 cmDepth: 43 cmInterior dimensions of the drawer: 49 x 28 x 7 cmReference 554V