Description

Refined pair of wall lights in lost-wax cast bronze, chiseled and gilded. The wall lights feature three lights, with cornucopia-shaped arms, and are electrified. Their geometric and phytomorphic decoration lends great elegance to the pieces, enhanced by the presence of a snake at the top. This pair of wall lights, of great taste and class, can furnish any space with refinement. A third wall light is also available. Italian manufacture from the Napoleon III period, around the mid-19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 42 x 25 x 14cm
