

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Mahogany Display Cabinet, Louis XVI Style - Early 20th Century

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Mahogany

Width : 63

Height : 151

Depth : 35

Description

This three-sided display cabinet, crafted from mahogany and mahogany veneer in the Louis XVI style, is a refined piece whose slender silhouette showcases exceptionally delicate cabinetmaking. It is accented by gilded brass ornamentation that enhances every line of the piece, while the sides are adorned with fluted pilasters resting on spindle legs, giving it an appearance that is both stable and delicate. The top is crowned with richly veined red marble, surrounded by an openwork brass trim that adds an extra touch of elegance. The carefully designed interior features two glass shelves that allow light to flow through and showcase the displayed objects, while the lower shelf is lined with pastel green silk, which adds a soft and elegant touch to the whole, creating a subtle harmony between the

Dealer

Antiquités Lecomte

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 02.40.57.63.83

Mobile : 06.38.26.81.12

33 La Bosse des Landes

HERIC 44810

warmth of the mahogany, the luster of the brass, and the delicacy of the textiles. This display cabinet perfectly embodies the timeless elegance of the Louis XVI style and offers a setting of great distinction to enhance any collection.Period: Early 20th centuryIn fine condition following restoration in our cabinetmaking workshopWaxed finishShipping available upon request in France and internationallyDimensions:Width: 63 cmDepth:
35 cmHeight: 151 cmReference: 631V