Description

COD 11591 French chest of drawers from the first half of the 20th century. A curved piece of furniture in the Louis XV style, richly inlaid with floral motifs and figures in walnut, rosewood, maple, burl, and fruitwood. The commode has three drawers of good capacity and an original marble top, in excellent size and condition. The marble has small chips and signs of aging (see photo). The dresser is adorned with gilded and chiseled metal handles, decorations, and escutcheons (see photo). The furniture shows some signs of wear and tear, but is structurally sound and solid, and is in overall fair condition. Requires restoration. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation. Visit our website www.parino.it,
