Description

A unique vintage ring crafted in two-tone 18-karat gold, featuring a distinctive articulated link design inspired by a bracelet. Set at the center is a diamond weighing approximately 0.70 carats, color G and clarity SI. The stone is held in place by a white gold prong setting, which enhances its brilliance and creates a refined contrast with the yellow and white gold links. The flexible, articulated construction makes the ring comfortable to wear, while the geometric design gives it an original and elegant character.
