

Antique Sèvres-style Porcelain Milk Jug With Tripod Feet

310 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 11 cm

Width : 7.5 cm

Height : 10 cm

Description

A late 18th or early 19th-century French Sèvres-style milk jug (pot à lait à pieds) with tripod feet, the feet and handle naturalistically modelled as branches with gilded flowers sprouting from them, the body of the jug with gilded polka-dot decoration with a band of ornate gilded decoration at the rim. Maker's marks: (spurious) Interlaced double "L" and decorator's marks in underglaze blue. Measurements: Height: 10 cm (3.9 in) Length: 11 cm (4.3 in) Width: 7.5 cm (3.0 in) Condition: In excellent condition, with minimal wear and no restoration. Provenance: With Robert McPherson Antiques (UK specialist dealer in antique porcelain) - label to base.

Dealer

Lefays

Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service

Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,

Chard TA20