Description

A large salt spoon...From the 18th century...I write "large" because salt spoons from that era are large and often oval...In the 19th century, their size was reduced...!Made of solid silver...950/1000...Inspected by the Farmers-General...The hallmarks indicating the city and silversmith are worn, so I can't say any more about that...!A "Vieux Paris" model...A classic...!With engraved initials...I think I make out a B. D. A. ...Weight... 12 gr 2
