Description

A charming 18th-century mahogany linen press. A superb linen press or sideboard composed of a lower section with 4 drawers and an upper section that opens with two doors. The lower section features 2 large and 2 small drawers, giving it a beautiful silhouette. The upper section has three sliding shelves. Beautiful flame on the two upper doors. A piece that stands out for its fine quality and beautiful proportions and it's smaller than a traditional wardrobe. Very good-quality mahogany with a superb grain and beautiful bronze hardware. A very beautiful carved and molded cornice, as was still made in the 18th century. Beautiful patina and in very good condition. restorations of use and maintenance. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our
