Description

This sumptuous Baroque mirror, dating from the late 19th century in France, is richly carved from gilded wood and adorned with exuberant acanthus leaf motifs. The deep relief and rhythmic volutes of the frame reflect the grandeur of the Baroque revival, while the luminous gilding adds warmth and refinement. The mirror's layered moldings--from the beaded inner border to the bold outer foliage carvings--reflect the craftsmanship and decorative exuberance typical of French workshops around 1880. Its antique gold patina accentuates the sculptural depth, creating a piece that radiates history and elegance. Perfect for classic interiors, eclectic spaces, or gallery walls, this mirror embodies refined taste and timeless artistry.
