Description

A lovely Art Deco enameled glass vase by Julius Muhlhaus, from the Haida glassworks in Bohemia. This vase features beautiful colors and a delicate enameled floral design set within bulbous recesses, accented with gold and numerous scrolls throughout. Large for this type of vase (18.5 cm tall), clearly marked, it has a very elegant chalice shape, a tapered pedestal, a flared bulbous body, and an open neck. Always very pretty, with many lovely colors--the photos speak for themselves....Circa 1910. In perfect condition; clearly marked glassware, circa 1910. A superb Art Nouveau piece with a lovely chalice shape.
