Description

Jacquard Silk Fragment with Floral Design - 19th Century / Prestigious Vintage

Stunning fragment of jacquard silk featuring a rich, polychrome floral design. The light, refreshing background highlights the refined brilliance of the large stylized flowers in shades of pink and salmon, accented by sinuous foliage in soft green and deep green. A few yellow and blue accents provide a subtle contrast, lending the fabric a harmonious elegance. This fabric is characteristic of high-quality decorative silks, where the technical mastery of Jacquard weaving allows for the creation of expansive and refined compositions. The design, both naturalistic and ornamental, evokes the floral motifs of the 19th-century Lyon tradition, often prized for furnishing bourgeois and aristocratic
