Description

Tableau ancienne 17th-century painting from Emilia can be attributed to the exquisite tradition of the Bolognese school. The splendid craftsmanship and refined color palette, clearly of the highest quality, suggest that it was created by a highly talented artist working in Bologna during the second half of the 17th century. This composition, depicting the Virgin in prayer, bent over to adore the sleeping Child with the infant Saint John behind her, is indeed another testament to the great Bolognese painting tradition of the late 17th century. Condition: Excellent. Dimensions: 87x107 cm. Provenance: Bologna, 17th century. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity. Assistance: We are at your disposal for further clarification or additional photographs. Shipping: Throughout
