Description

This pendant lamp from the 1960s/70s, designed by Verner Panton, is an iconic example of interior design from the period. The structure features mother-of-pearl decorative elements, creating a dramatic and luminous effect. These discs are connected by brass chains, giving the piece an elegant and refined look. Ideal for spaces requiring a touch of class and uniqueness, the lamp adapts perfectly to modern and contemporary spaces, offering a harmonious combination of natural materials and fine metals. In good overall condition, it shows some signs of wear, as shown in the photographs. Includes three E27 bulbs. Product Condition: This lamp has been restored by the experts in our restoration workshop, but the wiring needs to be redone. We try to present the lamps' true condition as
