Description

Oak Armchair by Benjamin Gomez, Basque Regionalist Art Deco, circa 1920-1930. An exceptional period Art Deco armchair designed by the renowned Bayonne architect and interior designer Benjamin Gomez (1885-1959), an iconic figure of the Neo-Basque movement and the elegance of the Côte d'Argent during the interwar period. This piece perfectly illustrates Gomez's genius--the subtle blend of neoclassical rigor and the graphic modernity of Regionalist Art Deco. Solid oak frame of superb quality, left with a beautiful light, natural patina. Superb turned work, known as "bead chain" on the armrest supports and the lower section of the front legs--a true visual signature of Benjamin Gomez's cabinetmaking. Slightly slanted backrest openworked with an X-shaped crossbar motif,
