Description

View of Venice, a veduta depicting a gondolier gliding along a small canal, with buildings enlivened by laundry hanging from the windows. A true scene, blending landscape depiction with the pictorial interplay of Venetian motifs, this work by Louis Abel-Truchet (1857-1918) clearly demonstrates the artist's Post-Impressionist style. Trained at the Académie Julian in Paris under Benjamin Constant and Jules Lefebvre, Louis Abel-Truchet is known for his views of Paris during the Belle Époque. This work depicts Venice--a city frequently depicted by the artist; note that a work on the same theme is housed at the Musée de Grenoble. A beautiful painting capturing the charm of the city at the turn of the 20th century, in its original frame. In very good condition, Dimensions: 47 cm x 55 cm unframed
