Description

19th-century oil painting on wood panel, signed R. Sicheffermeyer (19th century) lower right. A captivating portrait evoking the world of late 19th-century artisans, depicting a man dressed in a red buttoned jacket and work cap. He wears leather trousers or a leather apron, suggesting he may be a blacksmith, farrier, or another skilled tradesman. The magnificent antique wooden frame, richly carved with acanthus leaves and foliage, offers a striking contrast to the simplicity of the subject and lends a touch of nobility to the portrait.
