Description

Refined oil painting on canvas, framed in carved wood and gilded with gold leaf. The work depicts a Madonna with the naked baby Jesus in her arms, seated on a cushion. A distinctive feature of this work is the Madonna's intense, almost pensive gaze, as she rests her head on her hand. This is a painting of great taste and refinement, showcasing the stylistic mastery in the rendering of physiognomy and shadows, capable of lending a touch of class to any setting. Attributable to the Emilian School (Emilia-Romagna, Italy), late 18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D overall 70 x 59 x 6.5cm; H x W work only 61 x 50cm
