Description

19th-century large-scale oil painting on wooden panel, signed in the lower right, B.W. van Laar," for Dutch painter Bartol Wilhelm van Laar (1818-1901).A striking and characterful work, further elevated by its substantial antique frame. Best displayed with generous wall space and soft natural light, where the warmth of the palette and rich tonal contrasts can fully emerge.Bartol Wilhelm van Laar (1818-1901), was a Dutch painter renowned for his seascapes and maritime paintings. This is his only painting we know of that represents a still life.
