Description

In an Italian monstrance made of carved and gilded wood, a central cartouche holds bagged relics (ex-ossibus) from two saints, accompanied by Latin labels indicating Maurus and Andreas. The whole is set within a delicate arrangement of gilded cannetille, beads, and colored glass. On the back, a parish wax seal is clearly visible, and a second one appears to be concealed beneath a layer of glued-on paper. The reliquary is therefore unopened. Dimensions: 50 cm by 24 cm. Good condition. Reference 650
