Description

An exceptional Baoulé statue--the famous "blolo bla," which represent the spiritual double of an ideal wife in the afterlife--a statue revered and respected by her husband. Total height 50 cm, museum quality; the photos speak for themselves regarding the exceptional quality of this sculpture. A similar piece at Cornette de St Cyr, though less beautiful, is estimated at 30,000-40,000 EUR without provenance! See last photo.
