Description

A large and elegant drop-front secretary desk in light wood veneer, featuring two doors in the lower section, a drop-front panel, and a drawer in the upper section, chamfered legs, and a veined white marble top. Beautiful marquetry work within fillet frames; a lovely piece, quite wide. Louis XVI-era piece. This beautiful piece is stamped "Mondon" and "JME," François Antoine Mondon, master cabinetmaker in 1757. Good overall condition, with only very minor veneer chips.
