Description

Known as the "jasmine" shape. The cup features a flared rim and rests on a widened base accented by a molded band. The raised, coiled handle is attached at the top beneath the rim and to the body by a clasp decorated with a stylized palmette. The slightly flared saucer rests on a high foot with a grooved rim. HARD porcelain. The cup has a white interior decorated with a landscape in shades of brown and gray, rendered in the style of an engraving. The body is entirely adorned with a continuous landscape scene depicting a rural setting composed of trees, rolling hills, and architectural elements. In the foreground are small figures, such as fishermen or walkers. The matching saucer repeats this design as a circular landscape frieze, framing the reserved center area, which is centered with a
