Description

Elegant cut crystal serving decanter, with its original stopper. Timeless elegance and superior craftsmanship characterize this superb cut crystal decanter, designed for serving spirits or mixing cocktails. Its understated and refined design highlights deep vertical cuts that beautifully capture the light and emphasize the purity of the crystal. Featuring two spouts subtly integrated into the neck, it allows for precise pouring and exemplifies a design that is as aesthetic as it is functional. Its original stopper, which fits perfectly, harmoniously completes the ensemble. The piece's substantial weight, the finesse of its cut, and the remarkable transparency of the crystal evoke the work of the great French crystal manufacturers of the 20th century. An attribution to the Baccarat crystal house is
