Description

Italy, second half of the 18th century - Louis XVI styleAn important oval freestanding frame in finely carved and Mecca-gilded wood, crafted in the second half of the 18th century in an elegant Louis XVI style. The frame, designed to be placed on a piece of furniture or a console table, is embellished with a rich ornamental scheme featuring festoons, foliage motifs, rosettes, and refined volutes, culminating in a neoclassical-style pediment at the top.Originally intended to hold a painting, today it also serves perfectly as a precious frame for a mirror, becoming a piece of furniture of great charm and visual impact. The Mecca gilding, with its warm amber hue, enhances the elegance of the carving and lends the piece a refined luminosity.A decorative object of remarkable craftsmanship,
