Description

A beautiful antique oil-on-canvas painting depicting a wooded landscape featuring a figure by a stream, with fortified ruins and a tower in the background. This work is executed in the style of the great 17th-century Dutch landscape painters, with a balanced composition and beautiful lighting. The painting features a rich texture, an antique patina, and a network of natural crackles attesting to its age. It is preserved in its elegant 19th-century carved and gilded wooden frame. Characteristics: Oil on canvas. French School. Early 19th century (circa 1800-1830). Unsigned. Antique canvas on stretcher. Antique gilded wooden frame. Good overall condition with normal age-related cracking. Delivery or shipping available; please contact us.
