

18th Century George II Period Oak Dresser Base Cupboard

3 400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 174

Height : 85

Depth : 53.5

Description

Charming Mid-18th-Century Oak Country House Dresser Base This stunning mid-18th-century large dresser base cupboard, crafted from Georgian oak and pine, beautifully combines historical craftsmanship with aesthetic elegance. Its refined yet practical design reflects the sophistication and functionality of the period, making it an exceptional focal point in any country house, interior scheme, or serious collection. The piece features a well-figured solid oak molded top above three long frieze drawers, with an arrangement of three central false drawers flanked by paneled cupboard doors that open to reveal shelving. The molded drawer fronts and surrounds, along with flat oak-paneled sides, oak-lined drawers, and original brass plate handles, all highlight the quality of its

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

construction. It retains its original back and floor boards and stands on original stile-shaped feet, boasting an outstanding, untouched color and patina throughout. The molded oak-paneled sides, with carefully detailed frames and traditional pinned construction, speak to the meticulous craftsmanship of the era. The rich, warm color and superb patina of the wood lend an inviting character and a sense of authenticity and history to any room. This charming mid-18th-century oak country house dresser base is not merely a piece of furniture; it is a testament to the enduring quality, beauty, and charm of English country craftsmanship at its finest.