Description

Molded glass paste sculpture mounted on a blackened wooden base. Signed Lalique France, No. 1221 in the Marcilhac catalog dated 1935. Its dimensions are: height without the base 32.50 cm, glass width 8.5 cm, and glass thickness 4 cm. The base measures 4.50 cm in height, 12.50 cm in width, and 7 cm in thickness. This gives a total height of 37 cm. René Jules Lalique was born on April 6, 1860, in Ay, in the Marne department, and died on May 1, 1945. He was a French master glassmaker, jeweler, and jewelry designer. He became famous for his stunning jewelry designs, followed by perfume bottles, vases, candlesticks, clocks, and, toward the end of his life, car radiator caps. The company he founded is still in operation. Shipping to France and Europe.
