Description

An elegant Art Deco chandelier in silver-plated bronze, dating from 1925-1935. Its remarkable central shaft, adorned with stylized relief motifs inspired by plant forms and geometric patterns, perfectly exemplifies the refined aesthetic of this period. The chandelier features six harmoniously curved arms, each holding a frosted glass tulip shade with a flared square cross-section, diffusing a soft and warm light. The combination of silver-plated bronze and satin-finished glass gives it an elegant presence. Dimensions: Total height: 71 cm Diameter: 51 cm In very good condition. Electrical system in working order. Careful and secure shipping worldwide.
