

Bronze Medal By Charles Pillet: "nymph Of The Seine, Benevolence"

160 EUR

Signature : Charles Pillet

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Large artistic bronze medal (8 cm in diameter) from the Art Nouveau/Art Deco period (early 20th century), featuring remarkable relief engraving by the sculptor Charles Pillet (1869-1960). This commemorative, personalized medal features a magnificent original brown patina and boasts two richly decorated sides with exquisite details. The woman seated on a throne is the Allegory of Benevolence (or Solidarity / Mutual Aid). The nude woman reclining by the water's edge is the Nymph of the Seine, who here personifies the City of Paris.
