Description

Magnificent blown glass rooster from Murano--1950s--in perfect condition. This rooster is the result of high-quality craftsmanship and artistry, enhanced by the careful selection and masterful use of colors and inclusions. The rooster, or "Gallo" in Italian, is the symbol of dawn and awakening; it is the emblem of the island of Murano. The elegant and proud demeanor of this beautiful creature, with its playful eyes, perched on its radiant base, inspires admiration. This lovely rooster, adorned in a garment of gold and light, will be happy to fly your way. Shipping costs outside France available upon request.
