Description

Pastel gouache on paper depicting a view of Paris from the Seine. A beautiful view signed by Rudolf Konopa, dated 1904, and dedicated to Mr. De Bernheim...Perhaps Mr. Bernheim de Viller, a major art collector whose signed portrait by Renoir is housed at the Musée d'Orsay. Rudolf Konopa was an Austrian painter born in Vienna in 1864 and who died in Scheilles in 1938. A landscape painter and member of the Vienna Academy since 1881, he was a friend of Bachelin and a member of the Viennese Hugeland artists' group. He exhibited at the 1904 Grand International Salon in Paris. Our painting depicts this period of his life as an artist in Paris, where he mingled with both the bohemian crowd and high society.
