floral motifs with golden hues. The upholstery adorns both the majestic headboard and the curved footboard, with meticulous finishing touches provided by matching piping. Frame and Woodwork: Solid wood frame with a rich, warm walnut finish. It features magnificent hand-carved details--floral motifs, acanthus leaves, and rocaille scrollwork--along the upper arches of the headboard and footboard, all resting on elegant, curved legs ("cabriole" legs). Condition: Good vintage/antique condition. The wooden frame is sturdy and solid. The finely crafted carvings are crisp and intact. The blue and gold damask upholstery is exceptionally clean, fits perfectly, is well-padded, and ready for use. The charm of the "corbeille" design "The classic French "corbeille" bed is highly sought after because its unique curved footboard delicately envelops the bottom of the mattress, concealing the edges of the bedding to create an incredibly refined, luxurious, and opulent look. The blue floral upholstery, both bold and classic, pairs beautifully with neutral cream tones, luxurious gold accents, or pristine white bedding. A slatted bed frame is required.
