Description

An elegant bronze sculpture with a brown patina tinged with green, depicting a stylized reclining nude. The work is fully in line with the modernist movement of the mid-20th century, emphasizing the purity of lines, the interplay of curves, and the harmony of volumes. The silhouette, both sensual and abstract, evokes the aesthetic quest of the great masters of modern sculpture. It also brings to mind the casts of Pompeii. The work rests on an original rectangular wooden base. It features beautifully cast work with a well-preserved textured patina.
