Description

Flowers is a painting by Jos Damien depicting a bouquet of brightly colored flowers. The red, pink, and purple tones contrast with a darker background, creating a composition rich in light and texture. The expressive brushstrokes add depth and highlight the beauty of the flowers.Jos Damien (1879-1973) was a Belgian painter known for his portraits, landscapes, still lifes, and floral scenes. Trained in Liège, Antwerp, and then Paris, he also worked for the royal courts of Belgium and Luxembourg. His work is distinguished by a luminous palette and a lively style, which earned him a fine reputation in Belgium. Today, his works are prized by collectors of 20th-century Belgian painting.Provenance: private collectionCanvas dimensions: 43 x 66 cmPainting dimensions: 63 x
