Description

"Côte d'Azur" is a pastel by Rodolphe de Saegher depicting a landscape bathed in light. The slender trees, soft colors, and delicate shadows create a calm and warm atmosphere. The shades of green, blue, and gold evoke the characteristic light of southern France and highlight the artist's sensitivity. Rodolphe de Saegher (1871-1941) was a Belgian painter known for his landscapes and nature scenes. Trained in Ghent, he developed a personal style marked by a keen attention to light and color effects. He worked in both oil and pastel, a medium that allowed him to render atmospheric variations with finesse. His works reflect his attachment to Belgian and Mediterranean landscapes. Provenance: private collection, Namur. Paper dimensions: 30 x 40

Painting dimensions: 40.5 x 49.5 cm
