Description

"Castellan" is a pastel by Rodolphe de Saegher depicting a mountainous landscape bathed in soft light. The terrain, trees, and warm colors create a peaceful and harmonious scene. Through subtle tones and a balanced composition, the artist captures the full beauty and atmosphere of this region in southern France. Rodolphe de Saegher (1871-1941) was a Belgian painter known for his landscapes and nature scenes. A student at the Academy of Fine Arts in Ghent, he distinguished himself through his mastery of light and color. He created numerous works in oil and pastel, favoring subjects in which atmosphere and the effects of light play an essential role. His work reflects both Belgian landscapes and Mediterranean panoramas. Provenance: private collection, Namur Paper dimensions: 30 x 40
