Description

A set of twelve silver-plated knife holders, designed by René Gouin, a Provençal artist renowned for his jewelry and decorative objects inspired by the Camargue and Provence. Each knife holder takes the shape of a cicada, the emblem of Provence, with wings finely engraved with a design of olive branches--another powerful symbol of Mediterranean heritage. The relief work is exceptionally detailed, with high-quality engraving that highlights the veins of the wings and the foliage. All twelve pieces are signed by René Gouin and form a complete set, ideal for a beautiful Provençal table or for a collector of this artist's works. Dimensions: Length: 4 cm Width: 2.5 cm Condition: In excellent condition. A cohesive set, ready for use or display. These knife rests perfectly illustrate René Gouin's artistic
