Description

Large Castelli Conference Table - Italian Design - 1970s
An elegant and rare large conference table produced by Anonima Castelli, a renowned Italian designer furniture company based in Bologna. This model perfectly exemplifies the functional Italian design of the 1970s, with its long teak-veneer tabletop featuring clean lines resting on a chrome-plated tubular steel base that appears remarkably light. Originally intended for executive offices and meeting rooms, this table now naturally finds its place as a large dining table in a contemporary interior, loft, or modernist space. Castelli's craftsmanship is remarkable: balanced proportions, excellent stability, and a meticulous finish. The piece is in very good condition. There are simply a few signs of wear consistent with its age, notably some
