

Dogon Hunting Hare Mask From Mali

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Beautiful Dogon mask from Mali, symbolizing a hare; a mask used to prepare for the hunt. Hard, light-colored wood, beautiful patina from use, a few chips on the back, from the early 20th century, height 36 cm not including the custom-made base. The glare in the photos is due to the strong lighting used to show the objects as clearly as possible. From a very fine collection assembled by expatriates who lived in Africa in the 1950s and 1960s, later passed down through inheritance; it is weathered and faded, with extensive wear and significant signs of use. Total height 50 cm; shows wear and oxidation; not always in its original condition, but these cultured individuals took the time to carefully select their pieces on-site--they are all superb, and I have several for sale.
