Description

Early 20th-century oil-on-canvas painting depicting a young boy standing in front of a door. The painting is signed by the artist in the lower right corner and dated 1914. A very interesting painting by this charming artist of English origin, born in the 19th century and who died in the 20th century, who worked in the south of France. Very high-quality execution, with beautiful figurative work evident in the subject's lively pose and the meticulous rendering of details. Beautiful lighting. Original period carved and gilded wooden frame, dimensions 68 by 52 cm. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Pickup available on-site at the Mas d'Avalric, Montéscot 66200, Tel: 0611142533
