

19th-century Mahogany Armchair With Wicker Seat And Brass Trim

2 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

19th-century mahogany coat rack with cane top and brass trim. Elegant 19th-century coat rack made of solid mahogany, featuring a simple and refined design inspired by the Louis XVI style. It rests on four fluted legs joined by two shelves: a solid mahogany lower shelf and an upper shelf with original cane work, lending it a lovely sense of visual lightness. The upper section is equipped with a brass rod for hanging clothes, jackets, or coats, while two brass side handles make it easy to move. A nice touch: each end features a semicircular storage compartment, ideal for keys, change, gloves, or small accessories. The quality of craftsmanship, harmonious proportions, and fine materials make this piece as decorative as it is functional, perfect for a bedroom, walk-in closet, entryway, or hotel suite. In very good

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0607415540

Varredes 77910

condition. The cane work is in good shape, and the mahogany has a warm patina. The brass hardware adds an elegant touch of contrast. Dimensions: Height: 135 cm Width: 142 cm Depth: 33 cm DELIVERY ONLY IN PARIS AND THE ÎLE-DE-FRANCE REGION FOR 120.00 EUROS For other shipping options, please provide your ZIP code and city so I can make a request with the carriers