Description

18th-century Louis XVI bergère in walnut
A beautiful Louis XVI bergère in solid walnut from the late 18th century. It rests on four tapered, fluted legs joined by finely carved connecting blocks. The scroll-shaped armrests and the basket-handle backrest perfectly exemplify the elegance of the Louis XVI style. It is upholstered in an elegant celadon blue velvet, accented with a scattering of brass tacks. The frame features a beautiful patina and high-quality cabinetmaking. This bergère combines comfort and refinement and will fit equally well in both classic and contemporary interiors. Period: late 18th century. Style: Louis XVI. Wood: solid walnut.
