Description

A rare early Dunhill Rollagas presentation lighter manufactured in Switzerland during the late 1950s.

This example bears the engraved Alfa Romeo emblem and represents a presentation version produced for the famous Italian automobile manufacturer.

Unlike standard commercial production, Dunhill presentation lighters were manufactured only for specific corporate commissions in limited quantities, making surviving examples significantly rarer today.

Complete with its original Dunhill presentation case and original instruction booklet.

Very good overall condition with crisp engine-turned decoration and only light signs of age.
